

Towards the Bilingual and Multilingual Education in the 21st Century

GAOYOUHAN

The purpose of this report is to show the result of author's visit to the City University of New York during September 6th to 24th in 2010 within the Overseas Academic Discussion Program. A brief introduction of author's research of doctoral dissertation is given first, followed by an explanation of the necessity of this academic discussion for author's research. After that, author explains the purpose of her visit in this academic discussion, and presents how the purposes are achieved. At last, author concludes that this visit gives her a great deal of new discoveries, and author will reflect these findings into her future research.