3. Course-End Presentation about Tokyo Day Trip (東京一日観光)

Students are required to visit some places in Tokyo and make a presentation at the end of the course. During the trip, take some photos to be used for the presentation. After the trip, organize your presentation based on what you found most interesting during the trip. Describe the most exciting part of the trip in a way someone who has not visited Tokyo can understand.

- On the presentation day, guests (Ochanomizu university buddies, etc.) will join class to see presentations.
- All students make a presentation individually
- Presentation slides must include texts and visual aids. Showing only picture(s) or texts will not be acceptable.
- Try to demonstrate what you have learned in class. Speak as much as you can in Japanese, otherwise your performance will be evaluated negatively.
