

The 2nd special lecture

"Quality education for all : SDGs and Japan's international cooperation"

9:00AM-10:30AM, JULY 20, 2022(JST)

How we can achieve 'quality education for all', one of the most fundamental goals in the SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals) by 2030? The lecture focuses on the progress achieved and upcoming challenges, using as reference education projects in developing countries. The participants will learn how Japan is supporting developing countries to address this global agenda, and explore possibilities of utilizing the experiences to contribute Japan's current social issues such as educational disparities and intercultural cohesion.

Takako KOIZUMI

Deputy Director General for Human Development, Economic Infrastructure and Environment, Tokyo Center, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA).

B.A. in Area Studies (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies), Ed.M. in International Education Policy (Harvard Graduate School of Education). Joined JICA in 1993. She has long experiences in education development, and her career in JICA includes Assistant Resident Representative of Paraguay Office, Director of Basic Education Division in Human Development Department.

お茶の水女子大学 (Ochanomizu University)
サマープログラム事務局 (Summer Program Office)
お問い合わせ先: ocha-summer@cc.ocha.ac.jp

For more information

